Obra Social
Report 2023

Obra Social, promoted by the Foundations and Savings Banks, plays a vital role as a driver of social, cultural and economic development, especially for vulnerable groups.

Since the enactment of Spanish Law 26/2013 of 27 December 2013 on Savings Banks and Banking Foundations, they have been committed to transparency, improved efficiency, greater professionalisation of their teams and boards of trustees, as well as the strengthening of alliances to deliver Obra Social to every corner of the territory, while remaining a complement to the Welfare State

Building Alliances

CECA is active in many national and international forums, where it disseminates and promotes the work of Obra Social across the sector's perspective.

For instance, we are active members of the international trade bodies that represent the retail banking model, including the World Savings and Retail Banking Institute (WSBI) and European Savings and Retail Banking Group (ESBG), with 6,400 member savings and retail banks world-wide, serving 1,400 million customers in 67 countries.
